

yUUper Newsletter

Keweenaw Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

"We affirm the inherent worth and dignity of every person."

Sunday Mornings at 10:30 Jan 2019; Vol. 34, #1

BHK Building (700 Park Ave., Houghton). Enter on North Side, off Waterworks Drive

Sunday Schedule for January 2019

Jan 6: Paul Mitchell will speak on "What Isn't Faith Development in a UU Congregation?"

Jan 13: Forum: Sharon Levine will present an illustrated talk: "My walk on Spain's Camino de Santiago: a different way to experience time and space." Sharon spent four weeks on the Camino Frances route this fall. She will describe her adventures, both challenging and enlightening during the walk, and her thoughts since returning.

Jan. 20th: Paul's sermon topic is "Ramsden, Frederick-Gray, & Parker: Three leading voices in today's chorus of UUs." See further info at right.

Potluck Sunday: Bring a dish to pass and, if possible, your own service.

Jan 27: Bob Wheeler will present the thoughts of noted UU author, Robert Fulghum

December Forum Speaker, Carol Grafford, Offers Info on Local Buddhist Activities

Heart of the Keweenaw Sangha (HKS) is led by Carol Grafford and Keren Tischler, and follows the tradition of Vietnamese Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh.

This Buddhist meditation group meets every Monday from 10:30 AM- Noon, weather permitting, in the KUUF office space (upper entrance, Trinity Episcopal Church) in Houghton.

Paul Mitchell Discusses Successors to the "Three Prophets of Liberalism"

Channing, Emerson and Parker---they've been called, "The Three Prophets of Religious Liberalism." Undoubtedly hundreds of sermons have been written on the thoughts and acts of these three Unitarian Ministers.

With that in mind, in my sermon on January 20, I will discuss the thoughts of a contemporary trio of UU ministers: Reverends Lindi Ramsden, Susan Frederick-Gray, and Rebecca Parker. They might not yet be called "The New Three Prophets," but they are leading voices in today's chorus of Unitarian Universalists. Join us as we share our evolving UU story

Anne Roberts Joins KUUF; Signs Membership Book

Ms. Anne Roberts, a resident of Houghton for the past eighteen years, was raised in a Quaker household.

She met her husband, Clayton, at a dance, and they were married for sixty-six years. He passed away last spring. Clayton taught British History at Ohio State, specializing in the Seventeenth Century.

"Clayton and I had four children. He was one of four children, and so was I, so we figured we should keep the pattern.

"We own a cottage on the Bruce Peninsula in Ontario, Canada, and we spent our summers there. I will continue going there as long as I can."

Bob's Book Review

Religious Tolerance and the Attack on the World Trade Center

What were you doing on the morning of September 11, 2001? What happened that day inspired one man to write a book on religious tolerance: One Mountain, Many Paths: Common Sense for the Spiritual Traveler, by Patrick Swift.

Swift explains that he had first-hand experience as an eyewitness to the attacks on the World Trade Center, and this fundamentally changed his attitude toward life. His book, for him, "illuminates the common threads of faith, hope, and love from the great religious traditions that weave the human family together in a tapestry of peace."

The book contains 100 inspiring quotations selected from the top thirteen major world religions, and claims that on our spiritual journey, we remain much more alike than different.

Individual chapters include: One Mountain; Tolerance for Many Paths; Love One Another; Love Your Enemy; Forgiveness; Prayer; Peace for All; and One World. You need not read the book in any particular order.

We have one copy in our library available for checkout.

Bob Fiandt

Keweenaw UU Fellowship Home Page:
<http://www.keweenawuu.org/>

On Facebook:
<https://www.facebook.com/keweenawuu/>

Newsletter Editor: Jack Jobst
(jackjobst@charter.net)

Koffee Klatsch: Every 2nd and 4th Fridays at 10 AM, upstairs at Roy's Bakery, on the Houghton Waterfront. This month, we will meet on the 11th and the 25th.

Keweenaw Unitarian Universalist
Fellowship
PO Box 276
Houghton, MI 49931